

Job Announcement Form

Professional Assistance for Development Action (PRADAN)

Title of position offered	Project Coordinator (Livestock)
Number of Vacancies	05
Responsibilities:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Support in implementation of livestock-based projects using a community institution–led approach, ensuring alignment with project objectives and deliverables.• Strengthen and support primary farmer groups, livestock collectives, and community institutions to enhance livestock-based livelihoods, including inclusion of ultra-poor households.• Facilitate stakeholder coordination (government, partners, and institutions) to ensure effective implementation, visibility, and convergence at GP, block, and district levels.• Support development and replication of livestock-based prototypes, including identification of gaps, piloting innovations, and documentation of best practices.• Ensure building and strengthening support systems for livestock enterprises (breed, feed, health services, and market linkages) to ensure sustainability.• Identify, train, and mentor community cadres (including Pashu Sakhis and livestock service providers), ensuring capacity building, performance tracking, and effective field execution.• Provide technical training and continuous handholding support to farmers, community cadres, entrepreneurs, and institution leaders.• Plan, track, and monitor project activities, including both quantitative and qualitative progress of community engagement and field interventions.• Support preparation of knowledge products, training modules, toolkits, and field-based studies to strengthen project learning and outcomes.• Ensure timely documentation, reporting, and submission of field monitoring and observation reports.• Promote gender sensitivity and ensure active participation and inclusion of women across all project activities.• Any other responsibilities related to livestock project as assigned by the project team
Eligibility criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Veterinarian with a degree in Veterinary Science or a graduate in a related discipline from a recognized university.• Minimum one year of experience in a livestock value chain–based Farmer Producer Organization (FPO), business entity, or any livestock-related project.• Proficiency in reading, writing, and speaking Hindi and English.
Place of posting/Location	Different blocks across Bihar
Proposed salary range	INR 35,000 to INR 40,000 CTC per month (Based on qualification and experience and as per PRADAN pay structure)
Nature of job	One-year fixed term contract and extendable based on performance and project continuity
Last date of Application	25th April

For queries write to	patna-bihar@pradan.net with the subject line application for the “Livestock Subject Matter Specialists”
Preference	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Experience of Goat AI, will be given priority• Competency in community mobilization and promoting community collectives.• Experience and understanding on goat and BYP rearing based livelihood and field level experience.• Willingness to work in remote rural setup and extensive travel to field• Ability to drive a two-wheeler and have a valid two-wheeler licence
Link to apply for the position	https://forms.gle/2cYcMZhnHqMz9nWk6